PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS

CHRISTMAS is a happy day because it celebrates in a special way how much God loves us. It is the birthday of Jesus.

Before the actual day arrives, there is much to do. We make a list of the gifts we want to receive. In addition, we help clean the house, bake cookies, decorate inside and out, write cards, and wrap presents.

Amid all this activity, we must never forget the reason for the day. The Church helps us to remember with a special time called Advent, during which we prepare our hearts for Baby Jesus.
